CONTESTING CANADA'S FUTURE
L'AVENIR DU CANADA: DÉBATS
ET CONTESTATIONS

WELCOME TO “Contesting Canada’s Future” and Trent University. We want to extend a special welcome to our international ICCS visitors who have traveled from around the world to attend this conference.

Since Trent University’s founding half a century ago, the institution has been at the forefront of the study of Canada across all disciplines and research areas. Trent’s first president, Professor T.H.B. Symons, founded the Journal of Canadian Studies and encouraged the establishment of interdisciplinary programs focusing on Canada, its peoples, its culture, and its environment. The Frost Centre for research in Canadian Studies and Indigenous Studies is located at Trent, which also offers Canada’s only doctoral program dedicated to Canadian Studies, offered jointly with Carleton University. On the cusp of Canada’s sesquicentennial, and the 50th Anniversary of the University’s creation, there is no better place to hold an examination of Canadian Studies than at Trent.

BIENVENU AU COLLOQUE “Contester l’avenir du Canada” et à l’université Trent. Nous souhaitons, plus particulièrement, la bienvenue à nos visiteurs internationaux de l’ICCS qui ont voyagé du monde entier pour assister à ce colloque.

Depuis sa fondation il y a 50 ans, l’université Trent est à l’avant-garde des études canadiennes dans de nombreux domaines de recherche et de spécialisation. Le premier Président de l’université, le Professeur T.H.B. Symons, est le fondateur de la renommée Revue des études canadiennes; Thomas Symons a envisagé la création de nombreux programmes interdisciplinaires qui mettent l’accent sur le Canada, sa culture et son environnement. Le Centre Frost pour la recherche en études canadiennes et études autochtones se trouve à Trent. Le Centre propose également le seul programme de doctorat au Canada dédié aux études canadiennes, offert conjointement avec l’université Carleton. À l’aube du 150^e anniversaire du Canada, ainsi qu’à l’occasion du 50^e anniversaire de l’Université, Trent est le lieu idéal pour faire une analyse approfondie dans la discipline des Études canadiennes.
